

Take part in a delightful journey through Bucks County and visit some of the area's amazing artist's studios.

May 19-20, 2018

Kick Off Reception May 19 - 10 am to Noon
at The Conservatory
4059 Skyron Dr., Doylestown, PA

Bucks Fever ARTISTS' STUDIO TOUR

Self-driving tour of artists' studios throughout Bucks County.
May 19 & May 20, 2018 • 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Silent Auction at The Conservatory - Great art at a savings.

FREE EVENT! Enjoy refreshments and experience the unique characteristics of each studio.
Major Patron: Academy Wealth Advisers, LLC
Special Courtesies: The Conservatory

Diane Greenberg

Diane works in mediums of Pencil, Watercolor, and Oil. During the studio tour she will demonstrate in each medium from one subject and discuss the rewards and limitations of each.

★ At Conservatory

John C Deitz

Each medium has its own voice. Water color looks like watercolor, oil like oil. "The medium is the message" (Marshall McLuhan). Witness John demonstrate the vocal range of touchscreen painting while maintaining artistic identity and content.

Come and see the sausage being made. John will demonstrate touchscreen work from realism to abstraction.

★ At Conservatory

Dot Bunn

Still Life Painting Presentation / Demonstration - Dot will do a one hour still life Presentation / Demonstration from a set up starting at Noon each day. She will discuss color selection, aesthetic issues, painting techniques, as well as answer questions.

★ 4663 Bergstrom Drive Plumsteadville, PA 18902

Eric & Christopher

During the tour of our 15,000 square-foot space, you will get an inside look at our personal artwork, and hear the history behind our whimsical home accent line called "Eric & Christopher." *Products will be available to purchase during the tour.

★ 410 East Walnut Street Suite 5 Perkasie, PA 18944

Sandy Askey-Adams, PSA, MPS

It is about the essence, serenity and inspiration of nature. Using Photographs for reference, showing what to take out, let in, and change when necessary. Creating an under-painting and blocking in the dark areas...Drawing the eye to the focal point...and much more.

★ At Conservatory

Tricia Zimic

has been exhibiting her classical style oil paintings, porcelain sculpture and original etchings nationally for over 30 years. Tricia often uses animals as her muse, showing their unique human like personality in unlikely settings.

Tricia's porcelains are inspired by Meissen with all the detail and humor one would expect from the German masters from the 1700s. Tricia is represented by Gallery Piquell in New Hope and Lambertville.

★ 399 Geigel Hill Road Upper Black Eddy, 18972

Natalie Napoleon

Natalie Napoleon is a Realtor in NJ & PA as well as a Professional Photographer. She welcomes you to visit her at her listing at 4300 Hawk Cir in Carversville Estates where her Bucks County Covered Bridge Collection will be on display.

She will have a mobile studio setup on-site to demonstrate her ability to accommodate the needs of her commercial photography clients to build a branding portfolio of imagery including headshot.

★ 4300 Hawk Circle Doylestown, PA 18902

Evelyn King

I will be doing several different alternative firings during the weekend. The Naked Raku firings are dependent on the weather and is a process where a sacrificial glaze is removed after smoking to reveal the bare clay surface.

Horse hair firings will be done regardless of weather conditions and involves applying horse hair and other items to the surface of a red hot pot to leave their carbon imprint.

★ 6030 Durham Road Pipersville, PA 18947

Jennifer Frudakis-Petry

Figurative sculptor of Doylestown, has 34 years of experience creating commissioned sculpture in the tri-state area and throughout the U.S.

★ At Conservatory